Tasting: Polish Wines

Theme:

The specific character of Polish wines is discussed here. We tell the story of Polish winemaking and discuss climatic and soil conditions. We present the most interesting Polish winemakers. We concentrate on people who devoted really a lot to create the first for many years quality wines. We also present vineyards and curiosities regarding production methods. The participants, step by step, learn what the process of setting up a vineyard is, at the same time watching the most wonderful local examples, where pioneer wines of this part of Europe are created. We also refute many myths on wines.

Presentation:

The presentation is done in the form of exclusive meeting, multimedia show or connoisseur's corner, which are a kind of a journey through Polish vineyards. The participants get familiarised with places where the tasted wines are produced. They learn what the character of winemaking in Poland is, listen about the method of crossbreeding grapevines, hybrids and methods of reducing natural acidity. During the presentation we want to show the portraits of "our" winemakers. Close relationships with them enable us to fully present those incredible people. For some winemakers this liquor is an escape from the everyday turmoil, for others it is the next unusual adventure, and for a small number of people it became the sense of life. But all of them have one common feature: they are all pioneers of quality wine in Poland and on them and their "children" we are going to concentrate during our tasting.

Wine served at the tasting:

The availability of Polish wines is slight, but we do our best to provide wine from all most interesting and most appreciated Polish vineyards. We serve monovariety wines, those created from crossings and hybrids. Thanks to this, the participants will be able to decide on their own, what type of grape is the most appropriate to be grown in Poland.

Duration:

The presentation is designed for 90 minutes, but according to the wishes of the client, it can even last up to 180 minutes. In such case more types of wine will be served and the topic of wine, especially Polish wine, will be discussed more thoroughly.
